It's been pouring non-stop here since around 3am. It makes a lot of noise on the cabin. Four pirls, Alina, Claire, Towlor, and Alijust went "Swiming." They put on their bikinis and went outside in the rain. I took a couplepictures. Right now we're prank Alex the unit head. See there are two girls cabins in Trofirm, Zayit and Amura. There's also a set of twins. Emily and Sarah. They are nearly identical. Emily is in my cabin and Sarahis in Arma. We're gonna switch them and see if dother, then they switched hairstyles. Emily has two tatons, so makeup on Emily's real totos. Emily also has a nose ring and I don't know how were putting and I don't know how we can pull that off because she only and it three mouths are successful. bave a prettygood advantage. They're both so used to being mistaken for the other that when someone says either Emily or Sarah, the both look up, so if they look up we have an extuse of update. Alina, Mally and Paige are gaing to the art rounts get stick on gens for a fabe nose pieting. Emily also took out her nose ring and put on a Liny stud, which Ali is now making look like a pimple. I already took before pictures and I'm excited to explain something. When counsiers have their day off they leave after hunch and come back after lunch the next day. It to a vos they day sarah came back from her day off, so the story is that she got a hose piercing on herdayoff. Sarah also has a lot more birthmorks than Emily so we're drawing those on and covering upthe real ones. It is really from the Oh one more thing, can you send me nail polish remover?
